

Forthcoming Books

Back to Sources

These projects all appear to have been abandoned, but are included here for historical interest.

- Arndt Memoir. Linda Arndt is working on a memoir that will include details of private conversations she had with Patsy Ramsey; as of late June 2006, the scheduled release date had not been reported.
- Hunter Book Unlikely Soon. Alex Hunter. In a December 2006 interview in which he was asked about a book, "Hunter said he's had offers and serious temptations to write one, but he doesn't think he will, at least not until the killer is put away."
- Hutchens Autobiography. Wendy Hutchens reported in early September 2006 that she is working on editing a short auto-biography she wrote in May 2006, as an ebook to help answer people's questions about her and her motives for reporting what she knew about John Mark Karr. It should be ready soon.
- Johnson Book. Rita Johnson was years ago working on a book titled Whatever Happened to Baby JonBenet: In the Evil Mansion on 15th Street. While she claimed the book's publication was imminent, it never was published. Many believe her claim was a hoax.
- McReynolds Novel. Janet McReynolds is writing a novel A Sense of Tragedy according to Internet poster Evening2, but as of mid-July 2006, due date and publisher were unknown.
- Tracey Book. Michael Tracey book due August or December 2006; as of mid-May, Tracey had said the manuscript would be completed by August 6, 2006, but this was before the Karr incident blew up; scheduled release date has not been reported.
